

United Way of Greater Knoxville Young Leaders' Society

United Way of Greater Knoxville brings together resources to improve the lives of people in our community by helping them achieve their potential for self-sufficiency. We focus on the areas of Education, Health, and Financial Stability by funding 119 programs through 56 partner agencies- creating the building blocks for a good life.

You can help us fulfill our mission by becoming a member of the Young Leaders' Society (YLS), which is open to anyone between the ages of 21-45 who makes a donation of any amount to United Way of Greater Knoxville. YLS members will be invited to participate in networking events, service projects, and exclusive presentations from some of the area's top corporate leaders.

For more information on the Young Leaders' Society or to sign up, email Ruthie Sharpe at sharper@unitedwayknox.org or call 865-521-5564.

*Members of The Knox Society and The Tyson Society will have the option of listing their names and companies in the Young Leaders' Society section of the United Way Leaders Book.

Donors giving $1,200 or more, will have the option of listing their names and companies in the traditional leadership giving section of the United Way Leaders book in addition to the listing in the Young Leaders' Society.
